Men's Basketball Face East Carolina in Second Matchup

The Morgan State men's basketball team returns to the hardwood on Tuesday, Dec. 18 when they prepare to tip-off with non-conference opponent East Carolina for the second time this season. Morgan recorded a stunning 86-82 win against crosstown rival Coppin State at Hill Field House. East Carolina will enter Tuesday's match-up attempting to bounce back from a 65-52 loss to USF. Darrell Jenkins led a trio of Pirates in double figures with 16 points, while John Fields tied his career-high with 13 points. Courtney Captain netted 12 points in the loss.

Storylines

- Morgan State is on track to score well above their average from last year. The Bears ranked last in the MEAC in scoring averaging 54.8 points per game, but with Todd Bozeman at the helm Morgan State is averaging 72.7 points per game...a +17.9 point increase. The Bears currently rank 3rd in the MEAC in scoring offense.

- Ron Timus is emerging as one of the Bears most consistent players on the squad and in the conference. The 6-foot-6 senior forward is Morgan State's leading scorer and ranks 6th in the MEAC averaging 14.9 points per game. Timus has had two 20-plus performances in seven games. He led the Bears with a career-high 24 points at American (11/14) and scored 22 points against Seton Hall (11/25). The Washington, D.C. native is a talented player who will be a key component to the success of the Bears as they attempt to win their second game of the season when they play East Carolina.

- Xavier transfer Boubacar Coly has put together solid efforts in his return to the hardwood. The Senegal native is averaging nearly a double-double (10.3 pts & 7.3 rebs) for the Bears. The 6-9 center posted a season-high 20 points and 14 boards at East Carolina (11/11), posted 12 points and 9 boards against American (11/14), and is coming off a 10 point, 11 rebound and five block performance against Coppin State. Coly is currently ranked among the MEAC leaders in a number of statistical categories: Ranks 1st in rebounding; 2nd in blocks (1.86); and 4th in free throws (.839).

- Point guard Jerrell Green had a fantastic night against Coppin State as he broke a school record by dishing out 14 assists. The previous record was 13 assists by Billy Newton against Coppin in 1976. The Baltimore native currently leads the MEAC in assist/turnover ratio (1.88) and 2nd in assists (4.29 avg).

A Look Back at the 2005-06 Season:

- Joseph McLean tied MEAC season-high with 15 free throws made at North Carolina A&T (Jan. 23, 2006).
- Timothy Berkley led the team in blocked shots (26) and rebounding (6.0 rpg), Berkley ranked 6th in MEAC in blocks and 10th in rebounding.

- Joseph McLean ranked 7th in the MEAC in minutes played (32.69). The senior scored in double-figures 22 times last season. He led the Bears in scoring in 17 of 29 games.

- The Morgan State Bears finished last in scoring offense (54.8), scoring margin (-19.6), field goal percentage (.375), 3-point field goal pct. defense (.362), steals (5.43), turnover margin (3.83) and assist/turnover ratio (0.52).

- MSU had MEAC team-high of 74 field goal attempts against George Washington (Dec. 10, 2005).

- The Bears shot 28.3 percent (313-of-504) from three-point range, while holding the opposition to 36.2 percent (169-of-467). On the year, Joseph McLean had 28 treys, while the Bears defense allowed 169 three-pointers.

- Morgan State's 94 points against MD-Eastern Shore (March 1, 2005) were the most in any game during the 2005-06 season. The last time Morgan State scored at least 90 points was during the 2003-04 season in a 106-72 win against Florida A&M.

On The Sideline: Head Coach Todd Bozeman takes over the Morgan State program in 2006-07 and becomes the 15th head coach in the Bears history. As the head coach of the University of California, Bozeman led the Golden Bears to three NCAA tournament bids in four years, and was the youngest coach to ever reach the NCAA "Sweet Sixteen". Within the Pac-10, Bozeman's Bears became the first school in conference history to win three straight games over UCLA in Pauley Pavilion, and was the first school to take back-to-back games over Arizona in McKale Center in more than a decade. In four seasons as a head coach, he led Cal to a 64-35 (pct.) record and guided the Golden Bears to three top 4 finishes in the Pac-10.

Bear Schedule

Morgan State's non-conference schedule for the 2006-07 season will once again be very challenging. The contest will include match-ups against East Carolina, Virginia, Penn State, LaSalle, Marquette and the Bears will tip-off with Seton Hall in their home-opener at Hill Field House. "The good thing is that there are teams that we should be able to compete with," said Coach Bozeman. "As far as the MEAC is considered, Delaware State is returning everybody from last year's team, and Hampton won the Tournament last year, so they'll be returning as the top dog and we'll be gunning for them."

Non-Conference Schedule Flashback

Morgan State played one of the toughest schedules in the history of the program last season. The Bears schedule featured games against: Washington, Miami, #5 Florida, Virginia Tech, Seton Hall, and they hosted #19 George Washington at Hill Field House.

Hill Field House

Morgan State's home venue, Hill Field House, is one of the best facilities in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC). The Bears have posted a 15-10 record in Hill Field House since the 2003-04 season. The Bears finished off the 2004-05 regular season with an impressive 10-1 home record. The one blemish to its home record came in a loss against cross-town rival Coppin State. The Bears had a tough time protecting "The Cave" last season as the team dropped 9-of-11 home contests. The Bears notched its first two home victories against Howard (1/30/06) and Bethune-Cookman (2/6/06). MSU fell in its home-opener on Nov. 25 against Seton Hall, but bounced back with a big win against conference foe Coppin State.

Road Warrior vs. Road Kill

Morgan State is looking to change its road fortunes this season under new head coach Todd Bozeman. Dating back to the beginning of the 2003-04 season, the Bears have struggled to get a win on the road. The Bears only three victories away from Hill Field House were against Howard (1/10/04), Bethune-Cookman (2/17/04) and Coppin State (3/5/05). Morgan State finished with a 3-12 over road record. During the 2005-06 season MSU went 2-13 during their travels. The Bears recorded its first road win of the season when they stunned Norfolk State 63-59 (2/13/06).

The "Metropolitans"

Todd Bozeman's 2006-07 roster is comprised mostly of athletes from the Washington DC, Maryland and Virginia areas.

- Senior Timothy Berkley is from Richmond, Va. where he was a standout center for the Meadowbrook HS.
- JuCo transfer Jerrel Green and freshman guard Reggie Holmes are from Baltimore, Md. Green played his high school ball at Southern HS before playing point guard for Seward County C.C. Holmes, a 6-4, 180-pounder, was a standout at Saint Francis HS.
- Ronald Timus is a Washington, DC native who returns to the Bears after sitting out the 2005-06 season. Timus attended Woodrow Wilson HS where he averaged 24.6 ppg, 11 rpg and had two 40+ scoring performances.
- Freshmen forward Chris Moore, a native of Ellicott City, Md.) played for Howard HS where he played at the small and power forward position. Freshman guard Emmanuel Hightower and returning guard Rogers Barnes grew up in Fort Washington (Md.) and Columbia (Md.) respectively. Hightower is a walk-on from Westlake HS, while Barnes played at River Hill HS.

The Transfers

Morgan State's 2006-07 roster is a patchwork project, with transfers from Division I and JUCO programs providing the patches. Coach Bozeman has enlisted the services of three transfers who are expected to be impact players for the Bears rebuilding process. The transfers are as follows:

- Boubacar Coly (F/C, 6-9, 220) - Transfer from Xavier (Ohio) who joins the Bears as a graduate student.
- Jamar Smith (G, 6-3, 190) - Joins the Bears as a transfer from San Bernadino C.C. where he averaged 22.9 ppg.
- Jerrell Green averaged 13 ppg, 5 assists and 2 steals as the point guard at Seward County C.C.

Heating Up

The Bears hope to continue the hot shooting they displayed against Coppin State...MSU was absolutely on fire shooting 46.4 percent for the game and shot 57.7 percent (15-26 FG) in the second half...52.7 percent for the game. It was Morgan State's best shooting performance since shooting 52.4 percent (33-63) from the field in an earlier loss against American (11/14).

Bear Bits

- The Bears posted 86 points against Coppin State (12/6), it was the most points scored by Morgan State since a 97-84 loss at American earlier this season.

Next Up

Morgan State will host East Carolina in Hill Field House on Tuesday, December 18. The game is scheduled to tip-off at 7 p.m.

Todd Bozeman

Head Coach • Rhode Island '86 • 4th season (1st season at MSU • 64-41 overall/1-6 at MSU)

Todd Bozeman takes over the Morgan State program in 2006-07 and becomes the 15th head coach in the Bears history.

Bozeman, widely regarded as one of the bright young minds in basketball, began his duties April 27, 2006.

The 42-year old possesses a dynamic basketball background that includes coaching at the highest levels as well as affiliations with some of the best team, coaches and players in the game's history.

Prior to joining the Morgan State Bears, Bozeman spent two seasons as a college basketball analyst and conducted camps and clinics in South America and Africa. Bozeman also spent three seasons in the NBA as the advance scout for the Toronto Raptors where he scouted upcoming opponents but also coordinated and oversaw the Summer Player development program. Prior to the Raptors, Bozeman spent a season scouting for the Vancouver Grizzlies, who are now the Memphis Grizzlies.

Bozeman also spent time strengthening his ties with college coaches and familiarized himself with the top youth players as a coach at the AAU level.

Bozeman took the College basketball world by storm after taking over the Cal program in mid-season 1993; he led the Golden Bears to an 11-2 finish and a surprise berth in the NCAA tournament, including an upset of defending national champion Duke and a Sweet 16 berth to cap Cal's best NCAA tournament run since 1960.

As the head coach of the University of California, Bozeman led the Golden Bears to three NCAA tournament bids in four years, and was the youngest coach to ever reach the NCAA "Sweet Sixteen". Within the Pac-10, Bozeman's Bears became the first school in conference history to win three straight games over UCLA in Pauley Pavilion, and was the first school to take back-to-back games over Arizona in McKale Center in more than a decade.

In four seasons as a head coach, he led Cal to a 64-35 (pct.) record and guided the Golden Bears to three top 4 finishes in the Pac-10.

Bozeman was instrumental in building Cal into one of the elite programs in NCAA basketball and nurtured the development of future NBA stars Jason Kidd, Lamond Murray, Shareef Abdur-Rahim, Sean Marks, Ed Gray, Tremaine Fowlkes, Michael Stewart and the college basketball career of the NFL's Tony Gonzales.

Bozeman arrived at Cal in 1990 after spending two seasons as an assistant to Perry Clark at Tulane (1988-90). While a member of the Tulane staff Bozeman played a major role in the rebuilding of the Green Wave basketball program. He also served an assistant to Ernie Nestor at George Mason before taking the assistant job at Tulane.

Bozeman began his coaching career upon graduation from the University of Rhode Island in 1986.

Todd Bozeman was born December 5, 1963 in Washington, DC and was raised in Forestville, Maryland. He and his wife, TeLetha, have two children, Blake, 14, and Brianna, 13 and reside in Bowie, Md.

Scouting the East

Carolina Pirates:

• Today's MSU vs. ECU game marks their second matchup of the season against each other. ECU comes in with a 4-4 record following a 65-52 loss against USF.

• ECU has a four-game winning streak against the MEAC, defeating N.C. A&T twice, Hampton once and dropping the Bears during the first game of the 2006-07 season.

• ECU Is One Of The Nation's Youngest Teams - East Carolina's 2006-07 roster includes a total of four returning letterwinners and 10 players that have yet to don the purple and gold. The four returning players have a combined total of six years experience at the Division I level. The 2006-07 ECU squad includes 13 underclassmen and one senior.

• Lots Of Newcomers -

East Carolina's 2006-07 roster includes nine newcomers and one player that sat out last season and have yet to suit up for the Pirates. The 10 new faces include two junior college transfers (junior G Cory Farmer and junior G Darrell Jenkins), three non-squad members (sophomore G Jams Dillard, sophomore G Josh Sweeley, freshman C Justin Ramsey) and five high schoolers (F John Fields, G Greyson Sargent, F, Gabe Blair, F Chad Wynn, G Brandon Evans).

• Familiar Faces -

Prior to this season, in games in which Stokes and Bozeman sat on opposite benches, Bozeman holds a 2-0 advantage. As the head coach at Cal, Bozeman's Bears defeated Wake Forest in Winston-Salem in 1993. As an assistant coach the previous year, Bozeman helped coach the Bears to an 91-86 win over the Demon Deacons in Oakland. Stokes was an assistant coach at Wake Forest in both games. During the 1996 NCAA Tournament, Wake Forest (with assistant coach Ricky Stokes) and California (coached by Todd Bozeman) were both placed in the Midwest Regional. Cal lost in the first round, while WFU lost to eventual national champion Kentucky in the Regional Final.

Morgan State 67 East Carolina 86 Saturday, November 11, 2006

GREENVILLE, N.C. --- The Morgan State men's basketball team opened the 2006-07 season with a hard-fought 86-67 loss to East Carolina on Saturday evening in Greenville, N.C.

Five players scored double figures to lead East Carolina to the win, extending the Pirates' streak of season-opening victories to seven.

Darrell Jenkins recorded a double-double in his first game as a Pirate, netting a game-high 22 points and dishing out 12 assists. Gabe Blair scored 13 points and grabbed a team-high eight rebounds, while Jeremy Ingram came off the bench to also score 13 points.

Head coach Todd Bozeman made quite an impression in his head coaching debut, as the Bears pestered the Pirates for most of the night, especially in the first half.

ECU (1-0) jumped out to an early 16-6 lead behind the strength of four 3-point field goals, three by Jenkins and one by Courtney Captain. Morgan State (0-1) answered with a 10-0 run of its own to tie the game before surging ahead by seven, 34-27, with under five minutes remaining in the first half.

Taylor Gagnon scored five straight points before Ingram drained a 3-pointer to put the Pirates on top at halftime, clinging to a 44-42 lead.

The Pirates clung to a slim lead through the first 5:39 of the second half before senior Joseph McLean gave the Bears a one-point lead, 54-53.

ECU then scored eight straight points to build a seven-point lead and used a 24-8 run to build a 15-point lead, 77-62, with 4:48 remaining.

After yielding 42 first half points, the East Carolina held Morgan State to just 25 points after intermission and 38.1 percent shooting from the floor (8-of-21).

The Pirates shot 51.6 percent from the floor (32-of-62) and 42.9 percent from the behind the arc (9-of-21).

Boubacar Coly recorded a double-double to lead Morgan State with 20 points (6-12 FG) and 14 rebounds. Reggie Holmes added 17 points (6-10 FG) and Ronald Timus netted 12 with five rebounds.

Andre Ingram moves into 19th all-time at AU in career scoring

Morgan State 84 American 97 Tuesday, November 14, 2006

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- American put together one of their best shooting performances so far of the season, and it may end up being their best of the year, especially from three-point territory.

The Eagles blistered the nets by connecting on 18-of-24 (61.1%) three pointers led by standout shooter Andre Ingram who finished with a team-high 24 points to help the Eagles pull away in the second half to beat Morgan State 97-84 in front of a rowdy crowd of 1,772 at Bender Arena.

Ingram hit 7-of-8 three pointers and routinely shot from beyond the arc in rhythm and with minimal hands in his face as he led American to a 2-0 record for the season.

American got out of the gate early on and Derrick Mercer's touch pass to Brayden Billbe put the Bears in a 13-4 hole by the first media timeout. Mercer finished the contest with 13 points (6-7 3FG) and a game-high 11 assists, Billbe added 16 points (8-12 FG) with eight rebounds.

Ron Timus came out of the break and led the Bears with four points and Tim Berkley added a couple of rebounds and solid post play to help the Bears chop into AU's lead and eventually trail by six points following a conventional three-point play at the 11:40 mark of the 1st half.

AU answered with a short spurt and extended their lead to 31-18 with just under 9 minutes remaining, but the Bears began catching fire from the perimeter. Reggie Holmes nailed two 3-pointers and Jerrell Green pulled up for one during a fast break to spark a 12-4 run. Jamar Smith's jumper in the lane pulled the Bears to 35-31 with 5:40 minutes left in the half.

AU countered with a 10-3 run and pushed the lead back up to 50-38 following a putback basket by Paulius Joneliunas.

In the final 15 seconds of the half, Boubacar Coly rejected a shot that led to a fast break finished off with a Timus dunk as time expired. The Bears trailed 50-40.

Morgan State (0-2) struggled from the floor in the first half shooting just 41.2 percent (14-34), compared to the 2nd half where they shot 65.5 percent (19-29).

Unfortunately for the Bears they could not find a way to slow down American from scoring or getting second chance points. As a result, the Bears came no closer than 58-49 (16:52) in the 2nd half and saw the Eagles' lead balloon to as many as 19 points.

Timus kept the Bears close with a career-best 24 points, 11 in the first half. Coly completed the game one board shy of a double-double with 12 points, nine rebounds along with a game-high four blocks. Jamar Smith and Reggie Holmes chipped in 12 points each, while Joseph McLean scored 10.

Morgan State 66
Virginia 85
Sunday, November 19, 2006

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- The Morgan State men's basketball team was topped by the Virginia Cavaliers, 85-66, on Sunday at John Paul Jones Arena.

The Bears (0-3) trailed by just 12 at halftime (42-30), but the Cavs (2-0) ended up shooting 56 percent (14-25 FG) in the second half as the Bears fell to Virginia in the first ever matchup between the schools.

J.R. Reynolds scored a game-high 17 points and the Cavaliers made 7-of-18 (39%) 3-pointers.

Will Harris added 16 points and Sean Singletary chipped in 12 points along with a game-high eight assists for Virginia.

Senior Karanvir Aujla and freshman Reggie Holmes led Morgan State with 12 points each.

The Cavaliers started the ballgame by connecting on its first three 3-pointers and built a 16-4 lead early in the first half. The Bears put together a short burst to cut the lead to 30-15 when Holmes hit a 3-pointer with 6:30 left.

Virginia answered with a surge of its own and built a 37-17 lead at the 3:57 mark behind the Cavs balanced scoring.

Virginia forced 17 Morgan State turnovers, which translated into 13 points and held the Bears to 35 percent (23-65 FG) shooting from the field.

The Cavs continued their hot shooting early in the second half and extended to a 19 point cushion. The Bears did their best to keep the ballgame close, and an Aujla 3-pointer with 4:41 left to go cut the Cavs lead to 73-60. The Cavs answered with a 9-0 run and held a 22 point lead in the final two minutes of the contest.

Senior Joseph McLean had 11 points and finished the game with seven assists. Junior Jamar Smith was the only other Bear in double-figures with 10 points.

Virginia outrebounded the Bears by a commanding 48-30 margin and outscored the MSU in the paint 38-14.

Morgan State 63
Saturday, November 25, 2006

BALTIMORE, Md. -- Eugene Harvey pointed by Jamar Smith with 14:41 re-scored 20 points and dished out six assists to lead the Seton Hall Pirates an 8-0 run and increased its lead to an 83-63 victory over Morgan State 27 points at the 7:25 mark and never at Hill Field House in front of 984 looked back.

Ronald Timus scored a game-high 22 points and Reggie Holmes chipped in 12 points as the only Bears to score in double-figures.

Morgan State (0-4, 0-0 MEAC) had a tough time making baskets. The Bears converted 5-of-28 (17.9%) field goals in the first half and finished the game by shooting 38.2 percent (21-55 FG).

Seton Hall (2-1) finished with five players score in double digits, led by Harvey. Grant Billmeier scored 14 points (7-8 FG), Brian Laing had 13 points and 12 rebounds, Paul Gause had 13 points, while Stan Gaines chipped in 10 points.

The Pirates finished the game by shooting 54.5 percent (30-55 FG) and outrebounded the Bears by a slim 36-32 margin.

Morgan State trailed 41-20 at halftime. The Bears opened the second half by trimming into the Pirates' lead and trailed 49-31 following a three-

MD-Baltimore County 86 Morgan State 72 Monday, November 27, 2006

BALTIMORE, Md. -- Brian Hodges scored a game-high 36 points leading UMBC to an 86-72 victory at Hill Field House. Joseph McLean led Morgan State with 14 points, but not enough to bring the Bears their first win of the season.

Morgan State (0-5) had a tough time slowing down Hodges who finished the game by shooting a sizzling 10-of-18 (56.5%) from the floor and 6-of-9 from beyond the arc.

The Bears also had a solid night of shooting and converted 14-of-27 (51.9%) field goals in the first half, and finished the contest by shooting 46.4 percent (12-29 FG).

Morgan State finished with four players scoring in double digits, led by McLean with 14 points. Jamar Smith and Ronald Timus added 13 points each, while Reggie Holmes contributed 11.

UMBC's (3-3) Jay Greene chipped in 15 points with seven assists and Mike Houseman tallied 10 points with eight boards.

The Retrievers shot 46.4 percent (26-56 FG) from the field and outrebounded the Bears by a slim 35-32 margin.

Morgan State used 52 percent shooting in the first half to build a nine-point lead at 33-24 with 4:14 to play in the half. But Hodges nailed two three-pointers to help trim the Bears advantage to 38-36 at the intermission. It was MSU's first halftime lead of the season.

The Bears opened the second half sluggish and the Retrievers capitalized by racing out on an 11-2 run. Hodges pushed UMBC's lead to 50-41 when he scored a layup with 13:49 remaining.

The Bears answered with a 10-2 run of their own and a layup by Tim Berkley tied the ballgame at 62-62 at the 6:20 mark.

UMBC would go on to outscore the Bears by a 24-10 margin in the final six minutes of the contest.

"I thought we took positive steps as a program," said MSU head coach Todd Bozeman. "Our goal tonight was to start the game off better, and we did, but now we have to teach our team how to play when ahead."

"It's a building process," Bozeman added. "We are still having defensive lapses, but they are more glaring when you have a chance to win the game."

With the win, the Retrievers ended up knotting the all-time series record with Morgan State at 12 apiece.

Morgan State 71 Penn State 80 Saturday, December 2, 2006

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- Morgan State entered tonight's contest with hopes of catching Penn State cat-napping and collecting a historical win against its Big 10 host.

However, the Nittany Lions held on in the final minutes to escape with an 80-71 victory over Morgan State at Bryce Jordan Center before a crowd of 7,119. Jamelle Cornley led the way for Penn State with 18 points, while Brandon Hassell finished with 14 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

Freshman guard Reggie Holmes scored 11 of his 16 points in the second half and senior guard Joseph McLean added 15 to lead the Bears.

Morgan State (0-6) played multiple defenses and forced the Nittany Lions into 38.7% shooting and just 2-of-9 shooting (22.2%) from beyond the arc in the first half.

Junior guard Jamar Smith helped spark an 8-1 run and a three-pointer by Holmes gave the Bears a 20-14 advantage with 7:16 left in the half.

Brandon Hassle would go on to reel off the Lion's next seven points and junior guard Mike Walker's three-pointer gave Penn State a 28-27 lead with 2:12 to go. It was the Lions first lead in over 10 minutes.

McLean ended up dropping in his third three-pointer of the half to help the Bears stay within striking distance as they went into the break trailing by a slim 33-30 margin.

Penn State (5-2) held a 46-42 lead following a putback dunk by Hassle, but again the Bears answered, this time with layups from both senior forward Ron Timus and Holmes to trim the Lions lead to 46-44 with 12:29 remaining.

Jamar Smith (6-14 FG) and Boubacar Coly (4-10 FG) chipped in 13 points each.

A critical moment in the game happened when Timus stepped out of bounds on a baseline move. The turnover led to a three-pointer by Walker to give the Lions their largest lead at 52-44 with just over 10 minutes left.

Penn State would once again see their lead evaporate following a Jerrel Green dish to Coly for a layup and a three-point bomb by Holmes cut the Lions' lead to 52-49 (9:03).

The Lions responded with a 14-4 run over the next 5 minutes to give them a 66-56 lead and maintained the cushion down the stretch by making the most of its trips to the charity stripe.

Penn State shot 23-for-33 (69.7%) from the line, while the Bears were 10-for-13 (76.9%). The Lions finished the game with a 39-30 advantage on the boards.

Coppin State 82 Morgan State 86 Wednesday, December 6, 2006

BALTIMORE, Md. -- For the first time in a decade, Todd Bozeman tasted victory.

The win not only marked his first win since returning to college coaching, but it also marked Morgan State's first conference win of the season.

Senior forward Ron Timus (7-11 FG) scored 19 points and freshman guard Reggie Holmes poured in 18 points (5-10 3FG) to help Todd Bozeman win his conference debut as Morgan State coach in the Bears 86-82 victory over Coppin State in Hill Field House on Wednesday night in front of 4,065 fans.

"I told the guys after we lost to UMBC that we have to learn how to play ahead," said Bozeman. "They remembered what I said and played good tonight."

Junior guard Jamar Smith added 15 points and eight rebounds for Morgan State (1-6, 1-0), which snapped a six-game losing streak, but just barely.

Tywain McKee had a game-high 26 points (8-25 FG) and seven rebounds to lead Coppin State (2-7, 0-1), which nearly pulled out its second stunning comeback in a week.

The Bears led by 11 with 7:48 to play, but had trouble dealing with the Eagles' extended half court trap and went without a field goal over the final 6 minutes.

Coppin State put together a 21-9 run capped by a Ruben Britt three-pointer that gave the Eagles an 82-81 lead with 1:57 remaining. It marked Coppin State's first lead since the opening moments of the 2nd half.

Down the stretch Morgan State's Boubacar Coly caught the ball in the paint and proceeded to shoot a fadeaway jumper with 25 seconds left to put the Bears up for good.

Coly finished with his second double-double of the season with 10 points and 11 rebounds to go along with a season-high five blocked shots.

The victory marked the Bears first win against their cross-town rival since the 2004-05 season.

"The win felt good and the guys got on me in the lockerroom because they knew how important my first win back would be," said Bozeman. "But I told them not to celebrate this like a championship, because we have many more games to go."

Morgan State shot a blistering 29-for-55 (52.7) from the field, while holding the Eagles to 44.9 percent shooting (31-69 FG). The Bears dominated Coppin State on the boards as they finished the game with a 46-29 advantage on the boards.

Jerrell Green had a fantastic night from his point guard position as he broke a school record by dishing out 14 assists. The previous record was 13 assists by Billy Newton against Coppin in 1976.

Joseph McLean knocked down clutch free throws in the final seconds to help ice the ballgame. The senior finished the game with 13 points and two blocks.

Coppin State's Antwan Harrison and Robert Pressey finished with 16 and 13 points respectively.

Senior forward Ron Timus leads the Bears by averaging 14.9 points and 5.4 rebounds per game.

Season Outlook

The 2006-07 edition of the Morgan State Bears under the direction of first year head coach Todd Bozeman, may be one of the most exciting collection of talent in over 30 years. For the first time in almost 10 years. Bozeman returns to the college ranks with a program hungry to challenge for the top spot in an ever improving Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Bozeman brings tremendous coaching credentials to the table, and it will be just a matter of time before Morgan State becomes one of the most feared teams in the conference, and possibly even the nation. Bozeman inherits a couple of solid performers from last year's team, and they are Joseph McLean, Christopher Warfield, Timothy Berkley, Demetrius Branch and Karanvir Aujla. These returnees promise to use the experience gained from last year's unforgiving season and make 2006-07 an exciting ride for the Bears fans. With an emphasis on player development and with three starters returning from a 4-26 season, MSU has lofty goals fo this season, including an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Last year left a bitter taste in the mouths of the returners, but this season they have a host of newcomers to help the Bears battle on the floor night in and night out. The team is eager to make this a season to remember and they only ask their fans to BEAR WITNESS!

Bears Show Signs of Defensive Improvement

One area this young Morgan State team is looking to improve upon is its defense. The Bears have ranked toward the bottom in the MEAC in field goal percentage defense over the last four years, and the Bears' first four opponents have shot better than 50 percent from the field. Nine teams hit 50 percent or better against the Bears last season, led by George Washington who shot 64.8 percent in Hill Field House (12/10/05). In Morgan State's last outing, the Bears held Coppin State to shooting 44.9 percent from the field and 25 percent shooting from beyond the arc. Coach Bozeman's squad recorded their best defensive effort of the season when they held Penn State to 43.3 percent shooting fom the field... Morgan State held UMBC to 46.4 percent shooting in the Bears previous contest.

Morgan State MEAC Ranking in Field Goal Percentage Defense
2002-03	....11th (.482)
2003-04	.....8th (.451)
2004-05	.....8th (.455)
2005-06	.....8th (.461)
2006-7	.....10th (.499)*
*as of 12/10/2006

MSU Block Party

The Morgan State block party gets cranked-up soon after the tip-off of every game. The Bears lead the league in blocked shots and are averaging 4.43 blocks per contest.

Morgan State Gamenotes #8

The Bears are led by Senegal native Boubacar Coly who has collected 13 blocks in seven games and recorded a season-high five blocks against Coppin State (12/6). Morgan State ended up finishing with eight blocks against the Eagles, but they actually recorded a season-high when they wiped away nine shots against MD-Eastern Shore (11/27).

The Mad Bomber

Freshman guard Reggie Holmes has been a plus ever since touching the floor for the Bears. The 6-4, Baltimore native ranks among the MEAC leaders in a number of statistical categories: 3rd in 3-point percentage (.447), 3rd in 3-pointers made (21), 9th in scoring (14.0), and 12th in field goal percentage (.479). He scored a season-high 18 points against Coppin State and helped the Bears collect their first win of the season. 'The Mad Bomber' was unconscious from beyond the arc against the team's cross-town rivals as he torched the Eagles defense by connecting on 5-of-10 3-pointers. Holmes knocked down three consecutive triples midway through the second half and finished just two 3-pointers shy of equalling the school record for 3-pointers made in a game. With additional experience Holmes will definitely be one to watch as the Bears prepare for conference play.
